

— CASA DA —
COMPANHIA
PORTO - HOTEL
★★★★★

Dog Friendly Policy

- Small/ medium dogs till 20kg weight one welcome in Casa da Companhia.
- One pet per room if associated to the reservation of the guest/owner.
- The access of guide dogs is unlimited in terms of size and weight.
- Your dog must fulfill the legislation requirements as follows:
 - Updated vaccine bulletin with anti-rabies vaccination (from up to 4 months old)
 - Microchip – The implantation of the microchip is mandatory for dogs and cats born after the 1st July 2008. Dangerous dogs or hunting dogs born after 2004 also need to have microchip.
 - Pet register and license provide the above documentation upon check-in
- Your dog should be trained and total obedient to the guest/owner.
- Your dog must always be kept on a leash or at its own transporter throughout the perimeter of the hotel, except when it stays in the room with the guest/owner supervision.
- Your dog should never be left alone.
- Your dog is not allowed to stay at Bar and common areas at the hotel. This premise does not apply to properly identified guide dogs.
- The guest/owner is responsible for the hygiene of your dog while their stay. Hygienic bags will be offered when checking in at the hotel.

- Any change in your dog's behavior as among others: bark or bark consecutively, should be limited to the maximum, in order to ensure the legitimate rest and comfort of the hotel guests.
- The guest/owner should contact our front desk team to coordinate the most convenient time for our housekeeping to carry out with the room cleaning.
- The guest/owner is responsible for any once all the damage caused in the room and/or personal injury resulting from the behavior or actions of your dog.
- The guest/owner agrees to disclaim the hotel, owners, employees, guests and/or other customers, for damages resulting from direct and/or indirect, related and/or consequence of your dog's actions.
- The guest/owner agrees to indemnify the Hotel, owners, collaborators, guests and/or other customers, for damages resulting from direct and/or indirect action related and/or consequence of your dog's actions.
- The hotel reserves the right to charge directly on the guest/owner bill the amount proportional to the cost of damages (personal and material) caused by your dog.
- The Hotel reserves the right to define the rooms/typologies to allocate to these specific reservations.
- Dog Friendly has a supplement of 35€ per night is applied and is due for payment upon check-out.

Porto, ____ / ____ / ____

The Management

The Guest